

"A Dollar Saved Is Two Earned"
THE AMERICAN WANT ADS.
Tell You Where to Earn and How to SAVE DOLLARS—Read Them!

BOSTON CENTURY AMERICAN
Fair To-night and Wednesday.
WEATHER FORECAST.
THE TWENTIETH CENTURY NEWSPAPER

NIGHT EDITION

VOL. 4—No. 110. 10 PAGES. BOSTON, TUESDAY, JULY 9, 1907. PRICE ONE CENT.

CONTRACTOR'S MEN IN COURT CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING

By practically a unanimous vote the conductors and motormen employed on the several divisions of the New York Street Railway have decided to strike tomorrow night.

"Nothing but a backdown from the company's unfair attitude against our own case can avert a strike," declared National organizer William J. Walsh to the BOSTON AMERICAN today.

"The company refuse to retaliate before we strike," he said. "We must be thrown out of work unjustly. The company also declines to recognize our union. Local No. 471, and we have other grievances."

To Walk Out Wednesday Night.

"We will strike Wednesday night, unless the company arrive at some decision effecting our interests which will prove to us that it means to use us fairly in the future. I can see no prospect for a settlement, and our terms, and every man will walk out to-morrow."

SECRET INDICTMENTS NOT TO GO ON STRIKE

One hundred and thirty-two conductors and motormen, representing the Newton, North, Waltham, Leighton and Woodbury divisions, went to the Superior Court this morning to demand that the company be ordered to recognize the National Union of Streetcar Employees of America.

The settlement was held at 10 o'clock for the purpose of deciding whether the company should be ordered to recognize the union.

Vote Practically Unanimous.

The settlement was held at 10 o'clock for the purpose of deciding whether the company should be ordered to recognize the union.

COWBOYS NOTES TO REINSTATE PASH

LONDON, July 9.—The reinstatement bill, the first effort at legislation for the benefit of the cowboys, was introduced today in the House of Commons. The bill provides for the reinstatement of the cowboys who were expelled from the British Empire in 1905.

The bill was introduced by Mr. J. H. Thomas, a member of the House of Commons.

STRAINE KIDNAPPING TRIAL BEGINS JULY 16

Handcuffed to a deputy sheriff, but smiling and joking with his guard, Robert P. Straine, chairman and promoter, was taken into the Dedham District Court today. When he emerged a few minutes later two of the three cases against him, namely assault and battery and assault with intent to kidnap, were dropped.

Straine was charged with having taken to his room at the Hotel de Ville, in New York, a woman named Mary Jane, who was then a minor.

Medical Examiner and Aid Declare That WOMAN KILLED BY BLOW

"Blunt Weapon Inflicted Fatal Wound on Head," Conclusion in the Study Case.

Special Cable to Boston American, SALISBURY, N. H., July 9.—Mrs. Annie H. Studley, whose body was found on the shores of Canobie Lake on July 1, died from the effects of a blow from some blunt instrument. She was dead when her body reached the water of the lake. She did not commit suicide.

In this statement made to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter today, Dr. Fred F. Penland, medical examiner, and Dr. Harry Newell, medical aid, declared that the woman was killed by a blow from a blunt weapon.

SHOOTING HIMSELF DEAD LOS BEFORE WEDDING

John A. Smith, an expert golfer, who was engaged to be married within three weeks, shot and killed himself today at his home, No. 272 Washington street, Norwell.

His two-year-old daughter, Catherine, who was in the room when her father shot himself, was not injured.

ENTERPRISE RETIRING; MUTINY PROBE COMING

The Massachusetts training ship Enterprise, from which the majority of the crew were discharged, arrived in Boston today.

The ship was commanded by Commander L. D. Smith, who was in command of the ship when it was captured by the crew.

General Manager and Foreman of Woodbury & Leighton Held in $100 Each on Charge of Working Employees in Excess of the Statutes—Case Is Continued.

Charging that the building representatives of the firm of Woodbury & Leighton of Boston had violated the eight-hour law in requiring their men to work longer than that for a day's labor in the construction of the Franklin Union building, on Appleton street, its general manager and foreman were today arraigned before Judge Fessenden of the Criminal Superior Court and held each in $100 bail for a further hearing.

Secret Indictments Returned.

Secret indictments against the two men were returned by the grand jury on Saturday. The general manager is Daniel F. Lord of No. 111 School street, Belmont. The foreman is Daniel Molins of No. 4 Dudley place, Roxbury.

PROTEST AGAINST ALIENISTS

The men were represented by counsel, who pleaded not guilty to the charge in the indictments. Bail was furnished.

The matter was brought to the attention of the grand jury by Mr. J. H. Thomas, a member of the House of Commons.

PROTEST AGAINST ALIENISTS

To prepare a protest against the appointment of Dr. George F. Kelly and another noted alienist to decide the mental condition of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the president of the Christian Science Church, leaders of the church who figure in the case, have decided to hold a protest.

The protest will be held at the church on Sunday, July 14.

